What's new in Fifa 22:

- New Passing Styles - Now you get two options to play your passing passes: Thigh pass or a long reverse pass. An after touch pass can help you release a shot. Coincidentally, an additional after touch pass leads to a shot attempt.
- Passing Through Stones - The new Pass through Stones mechanic puts your opponents to a choice: Choose what they want to do when they are hacked. They can either play against you and give a penalty or get solid. Commit or dodge and let the penalty kick stand
- New Passing Attacking Roles - Positional and Non-Positional passing roles have been added to attack-based styles.
  - Both the Positioning and Non-Positioning players rely primarily on passing accuracy and speed. Positioning players form smaller, more compact striker. Non-Positioning players are more “lone wolf”. They rely more on speed and passing and less on individual creativity and control.
  - Positioning players are suited for quick, short passes. Non-Positioning players make longer, higher passes, using their speed and creativity to beat the opposing defence.
- Creating Space - Walk into a defender and while he’s off balance use space to pass him off.

- FIFA Academy 1-2-3 - New Pro Player formation for clubs to play in condition games in FIFA Academy and Pro status games. Also in the League mode an “Elite” Pro team formation will be available for when you have enough players to run the full width of the pitch.
  - Improved Recoil Motion - The experience of being shot has been improved. It feels like the ball is hitting the player from a farther distance. You will feel the movement a little differently than before.
  - New Background Details - Ramsden Park from Stoke-on-Trent and Blackpool Tower from Blackpool are new to the game.
